Guidelines for grouping

1. YDP grouping to be done once a year

- TAM will undertake its YDP grouping once every calendar year, at the end of the final tournament of the year. This will be done once TAM publishes the rankings at the end of the final tournament of the year.
- The YDP groups will be maintained until the end of the final TAM championship of the following calendar year, except for any changes that are brought to the groups as per the section 3 on 'Procedures for changing groups'

2. Basic criteria for grouping

- The YDP grouping is made with the player's singles ranking in his/ her age category as the basic criteria.
- Players ranked 1-8 in their respective age group are grouped together. These 8 players will be in the Group A of their respective age category.
- Players ranked 9 and below in their respective age group are grouped together. These players along with any new players who qualify and join the YDP will be in Group B of their respective age category.
- Players may be promoted to the group immediately above their respective age group, provided, that they hold a 1-8 ranking in the age group, immediately above their respective age group.

3. Procedures for changing players within YDP groups

- There are two ways that a player may be moved from one group to another, during the year.
- Option 1: The parent/ player may appeal to the association, with a justification as to why he/ she believes that a player has to move to the next group, immediately above his/ her current group, as determined as per procedures laid out under Section 2 of this Guidelines. However, this option must be exercised within 10 days of TAM publishing the groupings, in the Notice Board. For 2020 groups, published on 5th January 2020, the deadline for submitting appeals is 3:30pm, Wednesday, 15th January 2020.

- Option 2: During the year, TAM coaches may identify a prospective talent or a player who is not competent to remain in a group, when grouped according to their singles rankings, and feels that the player should be moved up or down from his/her existing group.

- Under both options, the request must be received by the TAM Administrator, who will forward the request to the technical committee established by TAM.

- The Technical Committee will consist of the following officials:
 - General Secretary of TAM
 - A member assigned by EXCO
 - A Senior coach

- The Technical Committee, upon receiving an appeal from a parent or Coaches will/ may evaluate the player/ players records and based on the players playing ability/ skill level will make a decision on the request received by the Committee. Based on the decision by the Committee, which will be final, the Player may be moved to higher group/ or retain the player in his/ her current group or moved to a lower group.

- The YDP schedule provides for 1.5 hours of training every other day (3 days a week for all age categories).
