Round Robin Draw Format Rules

1. The final standings in each group will be determined as follows in order:
 - b. Players with the highest points qualify to the teams.
 - c. If two players are tied, the result in the match played between the two players.
 - d. If more than two players are tied, the highest number of sets won out of sets played (if, after this calculation, only two players remain tied, the result in the match played between the two players will be used to break the tie).
 - e. If more than two players have the same number of sets won out of sets played, they will be placed according to the highest number of games won out of games played (if, after this calculation, only two players remain tied, the result in the match played between the two players will be used to break the tie); for categories using tie-break scoring, such players may instead be placed according to the highest number of points won over points played (if, after this calculation, only two Players remain tied, the result in the match played between the two Players will be used to break the tie).
 - f. If more than two players also have the same number of games won out of games played, the positions will be drawn by toss; for categories using tie-break scoring, such players may instead be placed according to the highest number of points won over points played (if, after this calculation, only two players remain tied, the result in the match played between the two players will be used to break the tie).

- g. For the purposes of the calculations in paragraphs (c), (d) and (e), above, when a match is played with a deciding match tiebreak instead of a final set, the tie-break will count as a set won or lost by one game to nil.
- h. Each set of a match won by default will be recorded as a 4-0 where short sets are being used). A player winning due to retirement of an opponent will be awarded as many games as are required to achieve a result.

For example, if a player retires when winning 2-1 in the first set, his/ her opponent will win the match 4-2, 4-0
