Announcement regarding selection of Men's and Women's National Team for 2025

Reference is made to TAM Announcement Ref: N/06/2025 (National Team Selection Rules for 2025) and the TAM notice no. N/02/2023 Procedure for composing YDP training groups published in 2023.

For the year 2025, the objective of hosting the selection is to identify the 5 players who will join the Men's and Women's number 1 ranked player of 2024 to form the Men's and Women's national team for 2025.

The ranking of players from the selection matches will not be used to determine any other YDP grouping or selection of players to represent TAM in international events in 2025.

Please note the following with respect to the national team selection and the determination of YDP groups for the year 2025.

1. National team

- 1.1. The 5 players identified through the selection process along with the year-end number 1 ranked player (automatically selected to the national team by TAM regulation) will form the national team for both Men's and Women's.
- 1.2. The 6 players included in the National team will be compensated as per the government regulations, provided that they comply with the agreement signed between TAM and the national team players.

2. National Training Squad

- 2.2. The Executive Committee of TAM with recommendation from the technical committee (TC) will decide on additional players who will be included in the National Training Squad (National team players plus additional players who will be included in the training squad for 2025).
- 2.3. The number of players to be identified and included in the National Training squad will be determined based on the number of players selected for the national team choosing to reside in Maldives in 2025.

3. Other YDP training squads

- 3.1. Players for the other YDP training squads will be determined by the TC based on skill level, playability, potential for growth, commitment for tennis and other considerations as determined by the TC).
- 3.2. Note that the ranking of players in the national team selection or the national rankings will not be a consideration in determining the YDP training squads for 2025.

If there are any discrepancies between the above criteria and those published in reference notices, please note that the criterion defined in this announcement will prevail.
